

Leonardo Daniels

ldaniels21@siprep.org

"It's a great way to save lives" by Derek Shepard has lead me to my passion of medicine. My aspiration in life is to help give people second chances and live life to the fullest. I would like to attend Stanford College majoring in Biology. My involvement at Summer Math And Science Honors Academy at Stanford has helped organize and inspired my thoughts and achievements in the medical field.

EDUCATION:

Completed two at Saint Ignatius College Preparatory!

Graduation Date: June 2021

EXPERIENCE:

Babysitter - San Francisco, CA

June, 2014 - Present

Babysitter for families on weekends. Provides meals and primary care for infants and kids through the ages of 2-10. Tutoring children in math and English.

Glide Memorial, San Francisco, CA

June, 2016-Present

Preparing meals and creating meal for the homeless. Having conversations and creating relationships with strangers soon to be acquaintances.

HONORS and AWARDS:

Honor Roll - Saint Ignatius College Preparatory

May 31, 2018

Received an academic award for earning a GPA above a 3.5

Scholar at Smash x Stanford

April 30, 2018

Summer STEM Program

Vice President-California Junior Scholarship Federation

June 2, 2017

Advocating and leading meeting along with the President for goals

SKILLS:

Cooking: baking. Art: Photography. Hobbies: Soccer, Cross Country, Volleyball.